CZYTANIE

3 Przeczytaj informacje o trzech osobach oraz czterech ofertach pracy. Przyporządkuj każdej osobie ofertę, którą byłaby najbardziej zainteresowana, wpisując litery a-d w kratki 1-3. Jedna oferta pracy nie pasuje do żadnej osoby.

1 Simon has recently left school and is looking for a job until he goes to university in September. He doesn't mind what he has to do. He'd like to save as much as possible for his studies. He can drive and he speaks good French. He is friendly and outgoing.

2 Claire has just graduated and is looking for work. She studied economics at university and would prefer a job where she can use her knowledge from university. She is hard-working but quite shy. Claire has never worked before. She is very good with computers and has also written a number of short stories.

3 Ed has just left his job. He worked in the office of a transport company for three years. He didn't enjoy the job and is looking for a change. Before that he taught English for two years and also wrote articles for different magazines. He is open to new challenges and doesn't mind travelling.

(a) A national newspaper is looking for TRAINEE JOURNALISTS

We need people who have work experience but not in journalism. You need to show us good writing skills and the ability to use correct grammar and spelling. We will train you for one year. You need to be interested in people and able to move around the country to where the stories are.

(b) SUMMER WORK OFFERED

We are looking for people to work over the summer. We offer good pay and lots of overtime if you want it. Workers will come to our office at 7.30 a.m. and be sent to factories, cafés, offices or local farms. All transport to and from your place of work each day is paid for.

(c) DRIVERS NEEDED

Long distance lorry drivers needed for a regular delivery route to the south of France. You must have a full driving licence for lorries of up to 10 tons and be at least 25 years old. We offer a good salary and long holidays. The job starts in September but we would like to interview applicants before the end of June.

(d) A transport company is looking for OFFICE WORKERS

No experience is necessary. We need young people to work in our office in Stratford. Full training will be given but you should:

- be able to work on your own;
- have some knowledge of new technology;
- be interested in finance and business.
